

PROUD TO BE A PATRIOT

Inside Our Northern Pride Book

Thinking about the recent years, so much has changed. We learned, lived and adapted to the crisis of the world. This year, we won states, beat county records, and excelled in academics. We quickly adapted to the hectic past year and have started our first year back to somewhat normal. Northern's yearbook wanted to capture the growth of our community. Choosing this year to be our pride book year was fitting as it represents our unity as a school. Coming back, we had no idea what to expect. So many questions left unanswered and we walked into Northern blindly. But one thing we as a whole student body knew is that we had to move on and start fresh. Which gave us this year's theme of turning the page. Each one of us are starting a new chapter of our lives and will continue to grow. Taking pictures of our school's games and clubs, interviewing staff and students and writing stories, the yearbook staff was able to put them all together in a final book that will be cherished by all. The 2022 pride book will allow all of us to hold onto that memory.

What's your Event?

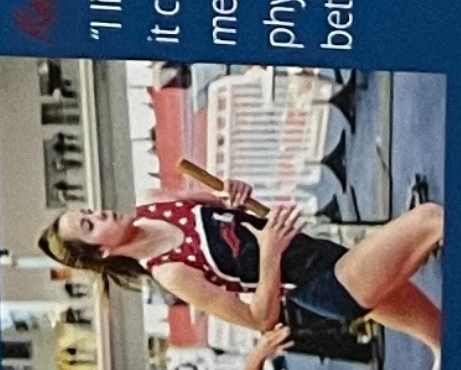

Blackman
"I like running distance because of the people and competitive atmosphere."

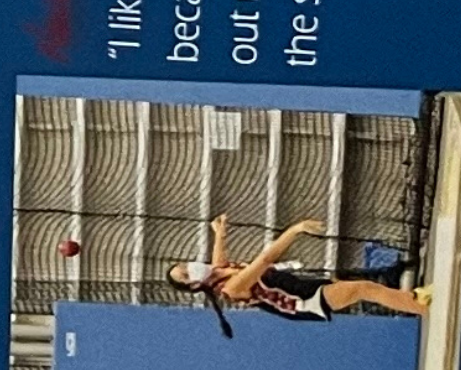

Blackman
"I run hurdles because while it's intimidating, it is also very rewarding and just fun to compete in."

Hoyles
"I run either the mile or two mile. It gives me time to pick up my pace, which is something you can't do with the sprints."

Blackman
"I like running the 500; it challenges me mentally and physically to get better."

Blackman
"I like throwing because I can just get out my emotions on the shot put."

Blackman
"I enjoy distance because I like being able to improve my times easily."

Sprinting for the finish line, Sophomore Noelle Blackman gives an insight to the sport "I really like indoor track because there is such a positive environment within the sport," said Blackman. "It's hard, and some days are very difficult, but it's extremely rewarding to be able to see results of your progress throughout the season." Finishing her race strong, Junior Gayle Henderson beats her competitors. "I have improved so much in each of my races, which is really cool," said Henderson. "One of my favorite things about track is being able to see the results of hard work I put in, as well as that of my teammates. Everyone on the team is so motivating, and it really makes the sport fun."

SMAC STATE MEET COMPETITORS

Annabelle Argeles, Noelle Blackman, Gentry Bowie, Annie Campbell, Julia Devine, Mia Halbert, Gayle Henderson, Kathryn Hoyle, Destiny Lewis, Ella Meccia, Leah Powell, Alexia Ricchiuto, Destiny Ryan, Sydney Yankanich

On the line Girl's Indoor Track team races towards the finish line

Preparing to receive the baton, Senior Destiny Lewis looks back on the season. "Taking pictures and cheering at meets all the way in VA weekly has been a blast," said Lewis. "The feeling of a runner's high and the feeling of exhaustion reminds me what being alive feels like." Running right alongside her teammate, Junior Grace Caraway finishes her race strong. "I like indoor track because of the team and the community made by it," said Caraway. "We are all just there to run and have fun doing it." In her blocks, Senior Leah Powell is ready to lead her relay. "Running relays is the most fun thing to do in track," said Powell. "It's the only type of event where you get to work together with your teammates instead of running individually."

By: Annabelle Argeles

Psych Baby Project

Emily Warner & Joby

Ly Fleming & Rasha

Sofia Jones & Gray

Emma Carter & Theo

Callie Patterson & Octavia Patterson

Claire Tyler & George Michael

Amira Newman & Delilah

Fallyn Collins & Isabelle

Brendan Kratt & Andrew

Hailey Hewlett & Buster

Em Cummings & Sir Hopper Leaps-a-lot CU

Hannah Moore & Penelope

Ava Wilson & Steven James Wilson

Annie Campbell & Bodaya (Bo)

Kaitlyn Kucynski & Carissa

Students take on the challenges of children

Meet the Officers

Marco Dorsett, 12
President

"I like connecting to other students and people in the community."

Zoe Posch, 12
Vice President

"I love leading projects and I connect students with peer tutors to gain a deeper understanding of skills."

Annabelle Argeles, 12
Secretary

"I am in charge of keeping track of all the service hours and attendance, it is a lot of work, but I enjoy doing it."

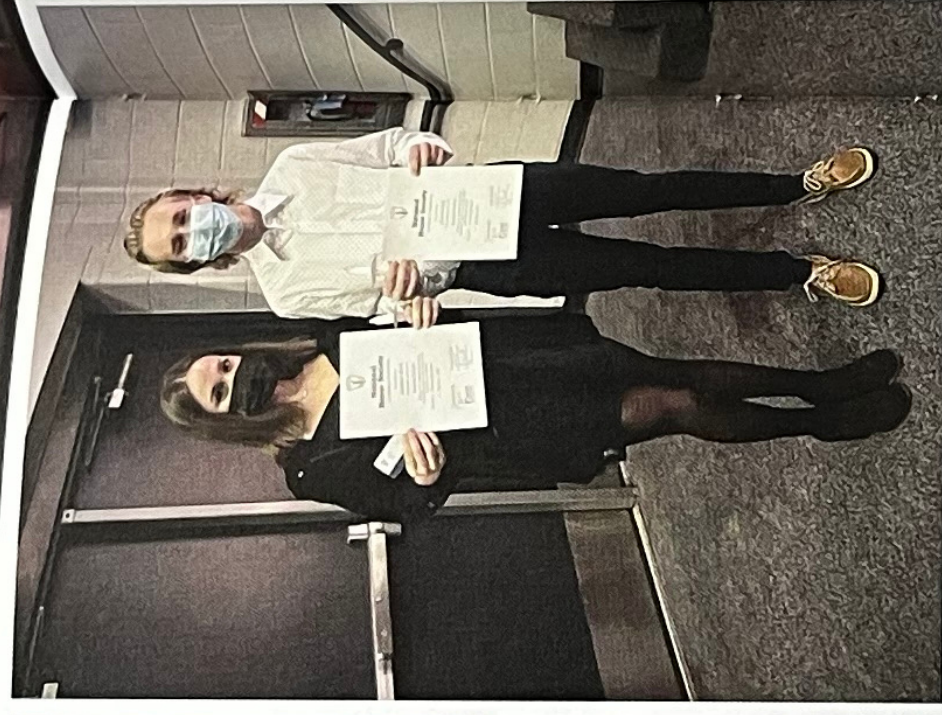

Fallyn Collins, 12
Treasurer

"I keep track of the money and dues that the club collects, I love the many opportunities to volunteer and help the community."

Brooke Ellis, 12
Historian

"I am Historian because I love helping organize projects."

Induction ceremony

Every year prospective Northern students go through an extensive application process to become members of the National Honor Society. Last year, the newly inducted members didn't get a ceremony, so to make up for it, the existing members were given the opportunity to join the ceremony with the new members. Holding up his certificate, Senior Cameron King stands for a picture with another inductee. "I joined NHS because I thought it would be a great opportunity to be a part of projects that help the community or people around the school," said King.

"I joined NHS because I thought it would be a great opportunity to be a part of projects that help the community or people around the school," said King.

National

Honor Society

Help for the Holidays

During the holiday season, members of National Honors Society came together to help others. Holding up a gift, Senior Marissa Reggettz leads a gift wrapping day. "We wrapped gifts for free during the craft fair to help families get ahead of their Christmas wrapping," says Reggettz. "The turn out was pretty good and they all appreciated our help." Posing for a picture, Senior Rebecca Knoops enlightens kids about Hanukkah. "I shared my knowledge of the holiday to groups of young kids," Knoops said. "I even taught them how to play dreidel."

